

AUTISM IN PINK

International Conference

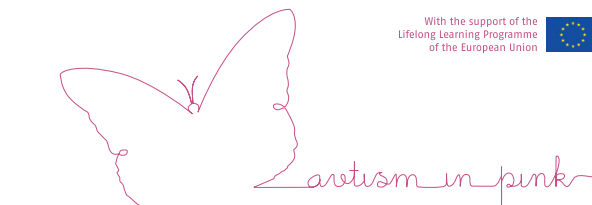

16 | 5 | 2014

AUDITÓRIO 2

Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian
Lisboa, Portugal

PROGRAMME

With the support of the Lifelong Learning Programme of the European Union

9.00	Registration
9.30	Welcome by the FPDA President, Isabel Cottinelli Telmo
9.40	Opening session with the presence of the General Prosecutor of Republic Dra. Joana Marques Vidal; Member of the European Parliament, Vice Chairman of the Rights Commission for women and gender equality, Dra. Edite Estrela; INR President, Dr. Madeira Serôdio; Margarida Almeida Member of the Portuguese Parliament and Carol Povey Director of the Centre for Autism (NAS) and coordinator of the AIP project
10.30	Diagnosis of women and girls on the autism spectrum and implications for future life Dr Judith Gould, Director, NAS Lorna Wing Centre for Autism
11.15	Refreshment break
11.45	Personal perspective on women and autism Robyn Steward Trainer, Speaker, Mentor and Autism Consultant and member of the UK Autism in Pink group
12.30	Lunch
14.00	Quality of Life – what does it mean? Introduction to the Personal Wellbeing Index (PWI) Richard Mills, Former Director of Research, NAS
14.45	Screening of Autism in Pink documentary – a unique insight into the lives of women on the autistic spectrum
15.15	Women participants of the Autism in Pink project talk about their personal wellbeing Community Connectedness: Glendria Santos, participant, Portugal, presented by Catarina Alves Personal Safety: Patrícia Castanha, participant, Portugal, presented by Catarina Alves Personal Health: Helen Ellis, participant, UK, presented by Sylvia Kenyon Personal Relationships: Clare Daborn participant, UK, presented by Sylvia Kenyon Future Security: Laura Williams, participant, UK, presented by Sylvia Kenyon Standard of Living: Maria Oviedo, participant, Spain, presented by Maria Merino Achievements in Life: Irene Rodríguez, participant, Spain, presented by Maria Merino Spirituality/Sense of Self: Maria Oviedo, participant, Spain, presented by Maria Merino
16.45	Closing remarks by Carol Povey. Formal goodbyes and deliver diplomas for the girls. Performance by APPDA Banda with Omeh and Glendria
17.15	Conference ends

Simultaneous translation Portuguese/English

